An International Student from Spain needs a host family. She will be a sophomore, and wants to attend Hayden during the 2024-25 school year. She loves horses, and wants to take lessons while in America. If you would consider hosting, email info@haydencatholic.net.

Parent Night: Divorced? Wondering what's next for you and your family? Navigating life after divorce is difficult. Hear how Mike and Katie Palitto navigated their broken marriages and found hope. Parent Night is 7 pm February 8th at Hayden High School's chapel. Light snacks to follow. More about Katie and Mike: During our respective troubled marriages, we individually began journey's of prayer that led to the most joyful and fulfilling existence either of us has known. After divorce, we both wanted to share friendship and hope with others hurting from similar experiences. In 2016, Called to Love Again ministry was born. We have both been divorced, annulled, and remarried in the Catholic Church. We have five children between the two of us. We never stopped believing in marriage and true love and we know that God has a plan for each of us-for our happiness. It doesn't matter how you got here-we hope you find God's Love through His Word and the Sacraments, as we all walk this journey together.

 Are you an expectant mother? We would like to pray for you and your unborn baby! Expectant moms may call Teresa T. at St. Joseph Rectory, 785-232-2863.

Service Opportunity: Volunteers are needed to visit hospice patients. Could you spend an hour each week or two to befriend someone in need? Many hospice patients, most of whom reside in care facilities, would love to have someone visit. Medical needs are met by staff, but they need a friend to have conversation with. Some appreciate reading, music, or having someone help with puzzles. Some just need your peaceful presence and to know someone cares. Call Karen at Prairie Wind Hospice. Your help is so appreciated! 816-591-7631 or 785-202-8900

Rethinking Justice Workshop is February 17th, 9-11:30 am at Christ the King. The prophet Micah tells us God requires us to "do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with your God." We do a good job of loving mercy, of caring for others. What does it mean to do justice? Catholic social teaching shows the pursuit of justice and peace for all people. Pope Paul VI taught if you want peace, work for justice. We'll examine God's call to do justice, and discover scriptures and Catholic social teaching provide guidance on behalf of our neighbors in need. This free workshop is designed for Catholic clergy and parishioners who want to learn more about how to live the call to do justice. Register by emailing Rev. Laura Guy, laura.topeka.jump@gmail.com.

Join other "Widowed Women of Faith" Tuesday, February 20th for lunch and companionship. The back room at Perkins is reserved for you from 11 am-1 pm. No RSVP needed, just come. We need each other to help ease the pain, and get through this time in our lives. Please, invite other Widowed Women of Faith. We meet every month on the 3rd Tuesday. Questions? WidowedWomenofFaith@gmail.com, or call 913-558-0191.

Men Under Construction Catholic Men's Conference; A Passion for the Eucharist:

For over 26 years, men have gathered at Men Under Construction as a Lenten ritual to deepen their faith and partake of the sacraments. This year a diverse line-up of speakers includes Dr. Scott Hahn, Dr. Ray Guarendi, Stephen Minis, and Braden Johnson, and will focus on the importance of Eucharist in our faith journey. Join us and you'll be able to participate in Mass, reconciliation, and hear from Archbishop Naumann. Real men finding the truth and happiness only offered by a relationship with our Lord. Event is Saturday, February 17th, at Church of the Ascension, Overland Park. Register at MenUnderConstruction.org
